Application Checklist

Fall 2024 application opens August 1

❏ Complete Application

Your application file, which includes the application itself and all application materials, must be complete before a decision can be made. www.r.umn.edu/apply or www.commonapp.org

❏ Application Fee

The online application requires a $30 non-refundable fee (credit card or mailed check). Make checks payable to the University of Minnesota Rochester..

❏ High School Transcript

Provide a copy of your high school transcripts including your 12th grade class schedule. Transfer applicants are not required to submit high school transcripts.

❏ College Transcript

If you have attempted any coursework for college credit, you must submit college transcripts. This includes coursework taken in Post-Secondary Enrollment Option (PSEO) and College in the Schools (CIS) programs.

Transcripts may be uploaded onto the application, mailed to the university in a sealed envelope or sent electronically through a secure online portal (Parchment, Clearinghouse, SCOIR, Common App).

❏ Passion for Health Care Statement (strongly recommended)

Students who succeed at UMR are passionate about health care. Briefly describe the reason for your passion to pursue a career in health care.

❏ Teacher Evaluation and/or Letter of Recommendation (recommended)

Letters can be mailed or emailed (applyUMR@r.umn.edu) to us from the recommender themselves or through the online application. A science teacher recommendation is required for the Early Assurance PA program and is listed in the application

❏ Official Test Score Reports (Optional)

If reporting scores, they should be sent to the University of Minnesota Rochester. UMR's test codes are: ACT - 2154, SAT - 5877. Scores reflected on a high school transcript are also acceptable.
